To ensure that Covenant can meet your child's educational needs, we must have the opportunity to review records from the school your child is currently attending or last attended. Therefore, please fill out this Authorization for Release of Records form and provide it directly to the school your child is currently attending or last attended. If appropriate, please remind your school to forward any final transcript to us when available.

Please note: This form must be given to the last school attended. Records must be sent from the school directly to Covenant.
